

ADVERTISEMENT OF TEMPORARY POSITIONS FOR THE 2019-2020 LIBERIA DEMOGRAPHIC AND HEALTH

SURVEY (LDHS)

The Liberia Institute of Statistics and Geo-Information Services (LISGIS) is the Principle Government Agency responsible for the collection, compilation, analysis, publication of official statistical information throughout the Republic of Liberia. It also oversees the coordination, supervision and development of programs within the National Statistical System (NSS).

The Government of Liberia through her partners will be conducting the 2019-2020 Liberia Demographic and Health Survey in September, 2019-2020 and wishes to invite applications from qualified individuals for the position of enumerators.

Requirements for Application

- i. Must have participated in previous Demographic & Health Survey or Malaria Indicator Survey;
- ii. Must be available for an uninterrupted period of at least One-Hundred Fifty (150) days from September to January , 2020;
- iii. Must be a College Graduate;
- iv. Must be a Liberian Citizen between ages 18 – 47 years;
- v. Must be willing to walk over 4-12 hours distances;
- vi. Must be computer literate;
- vii. Must have a good leadership skills

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS

All applicants are required to write a cover letter addressed to the Director of Human Resource of the LISGIS indicating clearly the position being applied for(stating the references), Academic qualification, County, Dialects and the current residence.

Attach copies of Academic certificates and other relevant certificates. Each of the applicants must have a personal Telephone Number. Application should be submitted between August 21 – August 23 2019.

All applicants' upon submission of applications should register their details on the Applicant's Summary Form and are advised to take note of the serial number for any future reference.

Only Shortlisted Candidates will be contacted.

Candidates who will successfully complete the training and passed all exams will be employed for the fieldwork.

Note: There is no online submission of the applications and no payments should be made when applying for the enumeration position.